

“Nature nurture, if we nurture the nature!!!”

Dear THINKER,

Sub: Regarding association with Green Eco society and sponsorships

Acumen towards a sustainability with Green: R&D, education and awareness.

Green Eco society (GES) is established to research and contribute the Pancha Bhoota (Five basic elements: Earth, Sky, Air, Water and Energy) Green concepts based research, education and Technology.

Our international consortium has members from all over the world. GES is an International Green society and bring many global activities (based on sustainability) such as Conferences, competitions, education, and research. We reach (also help you reach) our customers members, researchers, Ministries and Government Officials’ database (around 500000) from all over the world for the global events we organize.

We invite your contributions in this noble effort and compliment in developing green education, R&D and awareness programmes. The sponsors donations will be utilized for R&D, Centre of excellences in Green concepts, innovations, Green constructs, events, green education, rural education, rural youths developments programmes, services. Please refer the scheme (next page) of sponsorship details, opportunities and honors.

We look forward for your positive consent and acceptance!!!

Thanking you

Yours sincerely
